Notice of Nominations and Elections for Delegates to UFCW International Convention

April 23 – 27, 2018 – Las Vegas, Nevada

--- PLEASE READ FOR IMPORATNANT INFORMATION ---

UFCW Members Eligible to Stand for Nomination and Election

The UFCW International Convention, held every five years, will take place in Las Vegas from Monday, April 23 to Friday, April 27, 2018. The UFCW Canada Local 1400 Executive Board has approved to send nine delegates.

Elected delegates will:

- Elect international union officers;
- Debate and set the UFCW's goals, priorities, and policies; and
- Review and consider amendments to the international constitution.

Eligibility for Nomination and Election

To stand for nomination and election as a delegate to the convention, UFCW Canada Local 1400 members must, at the time of nomination:

- Be an active member of the local union who has been an active member in UFCW continuously since September 2016; and
- Must maintain continuous active membership in the local union until the first day of the convention.

Notes

- Delegates will require a valid passport for travel to the United States;
- Delegates will receive room, travel, and other expenses as per Local Union policy; and
- The Local Union will not pay for lost time from the workplace.
Delegates will be responsible for securing time off from work.

Nominations

Nominations are to be delivered (mailed, faxed or scanned and emailed) to the union office using the enclosed nomination form. Nomination information and details are enclosed. Eligibility of those nominated will be verified by the Elections Committee.

Elections

Any eligible member who accepts nomination will stand for election as a delegate to the international convention. Voting will take place at membership meetings scheduled at various locations from November 26 to December 6, 2017. Please see information enclosed for voting information.
